1:00 P.M. – 2:30 P.M.	DR. MARCIA CHATELAIN, AND SOCIAL JUSTICE Q & A Over the past decade, colleges and universities have experienced tremendous challenges by students urging institutions to respond to the nation's unfinished business of racial and economic injustice. In this interactive presentation, Dr. Chatelain will introduce and contextualize the most influential student-driven political and social movements of recent years, from Black Lives Matter to campaigns to divest university resources from private prisons and fossil fuels, and the calls to rename campus buildings. This session is ideal for higher education professionals who are seeking answers to how colleges and universities have approached change, as well as those curious about how to respond to today's generation of student.	KEYNOTE SPEAKER
